

Dedalo

Console

A elegant console table defined by its minimalist structure and contrasting materials, featuring a smoked glass, d-shaped top that appears to float above its support. The base is an architectural, curved plinth with a rich, brushed champagne-gold finish, consisting of two sculpted half-cylinder forms that taper outwards toward the floor. This console's refined composition of smoky glass and warm metal creates a sophisticated focal point, making it a perfect piece for displaying treasured art and collectibles in a contemporary interior.

Finishing
